Puberty is an exciting time, full of changes to the way you look and the way you feel. Puberty can start as early as 9 years old for some boys or as late as 14 for others. Puberty is a series of changes that your body will go through as you grow up. It can be a confusing time.

Always Changing Growing Up

What happens to boys? During puberty, boys start to make more androgens (reproductive hormones), especially testosterone, which causes a lot of the male puberty changes and makes the penis and testicles grow. As testosterone increases, boys begin having more erections, which is when the penis becomes stiff and sticks up as it fills with blood.
