Chinese Cinderella Analysis - 860 Words | ipl.org

As much a coming of age story as it is a vivid picture of early 20th Century China, Chinese Cinderella weaves personal experiences together with larger, historical events such as the Japanese occupation of Hong Kong. Considered bad luck by her family for causing her mother's untimely death in childbirth (a not-unusual conclusion in Chinese culture), her childhood goes from bad to worse when her father remarries an "evil" stepmother.
