Real Analysis Math 131AH Rudin, Chapter #1 1.1.  $6= 0$ ) and Real Analysis Math 131AH Rudin, Chapter #1 Dominique Abdi 1.1. If  $r$  is rational ( $r \neq 0$ ) and  $x$  is irrational, prove that  $r+x$  and  $rx$  are irrational.

Real Analysis Math 131AH Rudin, Chapter #1 1.1. $6= 0$ ) and Rudin's Real and Complex Analysis is my favorite math book. I've studied it thoroughly as an undergrad/early grad student when I was training to be a research mathematician working in complex and harmonic analysis. Like much of Rudin's other writings, this book is written from an advanced perspective.

Rudin had exceptional mathematical taste, and that taste shines through both in those often-maligned slick proofs and in his choice of questions. If you take the time to ask why each question was asked, how it fits into the bigger picture, and what in the chapter it connects to, you will learn an incredible amount about the flavor of analysis.
